

Mr. Maung Maung Aye

Director General

Social Security Board

Ministry of Labour, Immigration and Population, Myanmar

Mr. Maung Maung Aye is the Director General of the Social Security Board under the Ministry of Labour, Immigration and Population, providing highly experienced executive leadership to help the organization resolve complex business challenges. He was born in March 30, 1962. He holds Bachelor of History and Master of Public Administration. Prior to joining the Ministry of Labour, Immigration and Population, he joined the Myanmar Five Star Shipping Corporation serving as Manager from 2007 to 2009. He attended the training on Port Administration in Singapore, 2009. Later, he got promotion as Assistant General Manager and served from 2009 to 2010. After that, he moved to the Office of the Ministry of Transportation from 2010 to 2011 as Director and then served as Deputy General Manager up to 2016 at Department of Civil Aviation. Just in 2016, he was moved as Director of Department of Labour under Ministry of Labour, Immigration and Population. Afterward, he was promoted as Deputy Director General at Social Security Board. And then, he was served as Acting Director General at Social Security Board under Ministry of Labour, Immigration and Population and continued to serve as Director General. He is now serving as the Director General of Social Security Board since June 2017. Advancing through a series of eight promotions since then, his leadership has expended beyond the boundaries of executive. Being the Director General, he is responsible to perform necessary functions and duties implementing the provisions contained in Social Security Law, 2012 and office duties relating to implement the Social Security Scheme. He has to supervise the performance of the functions of the social security offices, hospitals, and clinics in accordance with the guidance of the Social Security Board.