

The National Health Security Office (NHSO), Thailand

Organization Information

The National Health Security Office (NHSO) was established by the National Health Security Act B.E. 2545, in 2002. All Thai citizens have been insured by the health universal coverage since the Act was passed by the parliament in November 2002. The National Health Security Office (NHSO) was established by the Act to manage universal health coverage for Thai citizens. By Section 24 of the Act, the NHSO is a government legal entity to operate autonomously under policies set by the National Health Security Board chaired by the minister of ministry of public health.

The universal coverage scheme (UCS) announced by the National Health Security Act has covered all Thai citizens who are not insured by other government health insurance schemes, i.e., 1) the civil servants medical benefit scheme (CSMBS) for civil servants and their dependents; 2) the Social Security Scheme (SSS) providing health care for employees of all private firms; 3) other state enterprise schemes or by the local government schemes in comparative to the CSMBS. At anytime, Thai citizens are eligible to at least one of one of the schemes based on their employment, or they may eligible to register to the UCS scheme. They, therefore, can access to quality of health care as need.

Head office of the NHSO is located at the following address: "

The NHSO head office

The NHSO operates autonomously under policies set by the National Health Security Board chaired by the minister of ministry of public health. Other committee and sub-committees are also established by the National Health Security Act, i.e., the Standard and Quality Control Board, and the Audit sub-committee, and other 13 related sub-committees in order to support the Board policies. A Standard and Quality Control Board was assigned by the law to have powers and duties related to standard and quality in health care. An Audit sub-committee acts as independent auditors to audit the NHSO operations.

There are total of 13 branches of the NHSO regional offices nationwide as follow.
